Mini Name Sound Analysis of Notable People™ prepared by Dorothy J. Muhammad

Names represent a body of united sound vibrations just like our human body represents a body of united organs. For example, the body is composed of organs that function according to their structure. It is the union of these organs that each contribute to the functioning of the whole body. So we may view sound vibrations as organs that function according to their mental qualities. It is the combination and blending of these sound vibrations that have the potential to manifest in physical form. (See names below for sample sound vibrations).
